Introduction:
Lexie wants help from a whatever therapist to deal with struggles in the marriage.

Lexie gets her attitude on the side of the road at a rest and waits for the cute hot is delighted to see Lexie's demeanor. Lexie was a bitter and cynical woman who was in a bad mood. Lexie was a bitch. Her bitch to get into the vehicle, the driver's door and sat in the passenger seat. Lexie was a bitch. Lexie was a bitch. Lexie was a bitch body back and forth as Luke spits his saliva into her womanhood (saliva provides a good play with a dildo tonight).

Luke holds Ingrid on the edge of her desk by her lower thighs near her ass cheeks. His heart rates in sexual adrenaline with his determination to make she therapist cum picking up. He knows he needs to close as her lower body shifts in and out of his face. With each flick of her clit and kiss of her labia, her spasms and lower body movements grow. He takes quick second breaks to catch his breath and give his tongue a rest. Each time he pulls back for a playful kiss to her inner thighs in vicinity of her crotch or a kiss to her trimmed bush, nesting his nose in her damp pubic area, Luke has the jackpot when Ingrid's lower body arrival pushing her pussy deep into his nose and mouth and holding it against his goatee.

"FUCK!!! GOD YES!!!" Ingrid screams with a firm grip on her patient's head keeping his face locked against her convulving vagina. Somehow someway, his tongue stays pressed onto her clit with each wave of orgasm hitting her.

Luke stays put ingesting the pungent yet intoxicating taste of Ingrid's cum during her orgasm. Her grip on his head finally loosens, Ingrid falling away for a breath of fresh air. It's only after her body calms down that she releases her hold on Luke and relaxes her legs. Ingrid then brings her legs to an upright stance and close together. She moves her ass up on the desk top her desk and brings her legs back to her face. She puts one arm under her legs to rest against. She has her other arm on the side of her thigh with her hand holding onto her nylon tights that are still half on.

"You know what you want Luke. Take advantage of me while I'm vulnerable in this position." Ingrid tells him jotting with a nod of approval. Her head lays flat on her wooden desktop. Standing in front of her, Luke is able to see her face through the small crevice between her legs that aren't fully closed together.

Luke rips off his shirt and loses it to the side and removes his pants and underwear together. He stands naked before the therapist in his socks holding his penis in his hand. Luke is just about average in length and better in girth. The head of his penis can be a bit wider than average and is pretty big. Ingrid's eyes are on his penis as he stands there and stroks it along with a wide stocky 6 inches in circumference. Luke has his penis pointed at her against Ingrid's hot labia. For a moment playfully rubbing his shaft along her glistening slit while brushing his fur covered trimmed bush. Luke's balls are resting on her pubic hair on the tip of his cock for the titillation. His wife is usually fresh and waxed for him so he does have an appreciation for a woman with a further mature vagina.

"Ohhhh!! Feels like you got a nice sized package for me! Why don't you put it inside already?" Ingrid tells him with a smile. Her legs widen as Luke places his grip onto her nylon material near her lower thigh for support. The head of his penis enters on her legs and rests at her hot pussy, nestled on top of her trimmed bush. He quietly obliges and gets closer standing over her on the edge of her desk.

Luke shoves his cock against the center of her labia and thrusts forward, parting her vaginal folds apart. His teeth clench and his neck twitches as his penis embraces the feeling of being inside. His cock slides deep into the therapist's warm entry with no trouble. It's a feeling he's known for a long time with his wife. Except now he's with a different woman who he barely knows, deep inside of her. He moans to himself as he slides his penis back into her pussy repeatedly.

"How's it feel?" Ingrid asks. She moans softly taking deep breaths. Her legs are high above her in an elevated position as her therapy patient stands fucking her missionary.

"Good. Too good!" Luke replies out of breath. He holds her legs up for her as his hips thrust back and forth along the edge of the desk. A standing position for him whether it's missionary or doggy allows for him to have control over the situation under normal circumstances. He's able to last longer this way. However, he's fucking a woman outside of marriage for the first time making him vulnerable. It's one thing having a affair and affair fantasies. It's another when the fantasy becomes reality. The reality being that he finds himself in an environment that's supposed to be a professional setting with a licensed therapist allowing him to fuck her on her own desk. Luke knows he won't last long.

"You can't cum yet. Don't you want to know what I want you to do for me?" Ingrid moans.

"Tell me."

"If your wife won't get kinky with you, I'll help you with that. Go take a seat on my chair." Ingrid tells him with a firm tone of authority. Luke pulls his cock out of her pussy and steps away, the helps her off the desk and walks around to the other side to take a seat on her chair. In an ergonomic chair, Ingrid pulls off her nylon tights and skirt completely and walks over to her side of the desk to join Luke. She reaches into a small drawer in her desk.

"My next appointment is in 20 minutes so I do apologize for my lack of foreplay with you, but I do have a little something special for you." Ingrid tells him as she pulls out a small bottle of lubricant and a dildo. The therapist opens the cap of the bottle and pours a generous amount of lubricant into her palm and rubbing it on her fingers and onto the desk. She puts both of her hands onto Luke's erect cock and lathers his shaft with the lube grants of the feeling of her soft hands massaging his penis for a moment before she takes one hand off. She rubs her ass behind her to get some lubricant on.

"Does your wife know about this side of you in the sack?" Ingrid asks with a sultry whisper in his ear. She continues to rub lube on his cock for him before breaking him.

"No." he responds almost inaudible. His heart rate continues to race as a strong feeling of nerves consume him.

"What a shame. Because I love it. And now you'll love it too. All I want from you is to relax on my chair and let me take over."

Ingrid mounts herself on top of Luke on her office chair, standing over his legs. She grabs his cock from behind and lowers herself for his mushroom head to find her anus. Luke's shaft slides between her thick glutes. His meat is slick and slips around as the therapist uses her hand to lip and hold his penis passage. Once Ingrid has Luke's tip press against her asshole, she lets go of his cock and places both of her hands on Luke's shoulders in front of her. She's in a control on top of him, letting his thick member gradually stretch her out.

"How does this feel?" Ingrid asks.

"Tight!" Luke replies with a grin, closing his eyes with a deep sigh. He knows he isn't going to last long but wishes he can hold onto the moment for as long as possible. He just met the therapist and now she's mounted his lap with his cock inserted in her ass. Ingrid reaches behind her once more to rub some excess lube on her ass cheeks. She slides her hand down and caresses her testicles. Luke's balls are shaft with her slick fingers. Ingrid shifts her bottom further down his lap, sliding his cock deeper up her ass.

"Just sit back and relax. Let me take over for you." Ingrid whispers seductively into his ear. She kisses his ear lobe softly before taking her tongue out. The therapist sticks her tongue into his ear and licks it fervidly. The tickling sensation is foreign to Luke but he takes deep breaths trying to keep himself together. Ingrid playfully licks the inside of his right ear, making a slobbery mess.

"Mmmm... your cock is so hard. I can almost feel it getting harder inside of my tight ass. Do you like being inside of me Luke?" Ingrid whispers as she moves her lower body up and down on his lap slowly.

"Yes, I do. You're driving me crazy!" He mutters softly with deep grunts in between.

Luke stays still on the ergonomic chair with the therapist on his lap riding him slowly. Luke's mind is in a red out of control state. His penis is the metal pinnacle of the chair with his hands gripping onto her ass cheeks and thighs. Ingrid leans back and forward in his lap and he leans in to get a taste. She leans in to let him suck on a tit. She moans softly as Luke sucks on her hard nipple and licks, sucking on a teardrop pink nipple. Luke grunts getting a taste of her mammary skin. Ingrid grinds her ass in her lap when he sucks her tit and bites it. Luke has no idea how much he's stretching her out. She's no stranger to anal. She's enjoying him so much she's open downward from on his lap. He feels her bottom clap into his thighs. If she were riding him in reverse, he'd be able to see her asshole spreading in first penetration. Luke and Ingrid are in length balls-deep up her ass. Luke pushes Ingrid's upper body away from him and places his hands onto her hips, holding onto her waistline fleckled skin. Ingrid looks down at him with a smile before getting close to his face and whispering into his ear.

"Are you satisfied with my service?" She asks him. Luke grunts with a nod knowing his arrival is approaching.

"Good. This was all for the experiment but I must say this is so much better than I anticipated I'd be. I know it's unethical but I have a lure for getting fucked by unhappy married men. It just makes me wet and feel like a dirty bitch knowing that I'm satisfying men like you. Letting you do things to me that your wife won't do... Jiii
